

1) Voices Rising Ensemble

We are a 10 woman group and evolving all the time! We love jazzy, bluesy, eclectic and world beat music. We perform informally each season, bringing joy out into the community. Some singing experience is required, and a small amount of weekly practice on your own is expected. (prerequisite: basic music reading skills or SingShop© One)

When: 8 Tuesday evenings January 24 to March 13, 7 to 9 pm

Where: Colleen's studio, just off Commercial Drive.

Register: Call Colleen at 604-255-0776 or email colleen@colleensavage.com

Fee: $140 / 8 sessions

2) SingShop workshops in vocal expression provide a solid foundation in skills and technique that is applicable to any style of singing and voice work. We begin with relaxation, breathing and the basic tools for producing healthy, natural vocal sound unique to each individual. We develop projection, resonance and articulation. We look at basic musical structures and language, and introduce the use of solfege to help us learn and remember melody and harmony. We sing great tunes from the worlds of blues and gospel, practicing ensemble singing skills – listening, blending and dynamics. Fun!

SingShop Level One – the Basics

When: 6 Mondays evenings, January 16 to February 20, 7 to 8:30 pm

Where: Colleen's studio just off Commercial Drive

Fee: $120 / 6 sessions

SingShop Level Two – 'Doo Wop, Doo Waah!'

A blues-based popular song style, Doo-Wop is 'a capella' 'Rhythm 'n' Blues.' It's also 60's dance music, and we are the band - the bass, the harmony, the groove, the melody and the back-up. The very most fun you can have on 3 chords! (ok, sometimes a couple more). Think 'Drifters,' 'Coaster,' 'Shirelles,' 'Little Anthony and the Imperials'.

When: 6 Wednesday evenings, January 18 to February 22, 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Where: a home studio near Nanaimo and East 3rd Ave

(prerequisite: some singing exp. or SingShop© One recommended)

Fee: $120 / 6 sessions

Register: Both SingShop© classes are through the Moveable Music School and an excellent value. Six classes for $130. Some bursaries may be available. Call Rosemary Campbell at (604) 734-5571 or email mms@uniserve.com

3) Private lessons Individual or group coaching.

Individual instruction is the fast way to progress! A few private lessons along with a class can be the best of both worlds - lots of individual attention to technique and a fun context for your singing. Private sessions are $60/hr. or 4 sessions for $200.

Call or email for more info anytime.

Thank you!
